

Members' Regulatory Day

October 9, 2025

leatherhead
food research

part of SAGENTIA REGULATORY

Biographies

Abigail Wacek is Managing Director, Sagentia Regulatory North America, formerly TSG Consulting. Abigail specializes in federal pesticide compliance, with an emphasis on antimicrobials. Abigail has more than 15 years of experience in submitting federal registration packages, preparing inert ingredient petitions, developing label claims and registration strategies, coordinating product testing, and conducting FIFRA training. Abigail has a BA in Environmental Studies from Gettysburg College.

Luke Murphy is VP – Key Accounts. Luke began his Leatherhead career in the regulatory team in 2006, building up expertise in UK, EU and Irish food law before moving to the Membership team in 2017. Now, he oversees the key accounts for the Regulatory and Scientific Affairs division. Prior to Leatherhead, Luke worked in the food industry for five years, in various product development and technical roles. He is interested in emerging regulations on sustainability and has recently completed the CISL business sustainability management course. Luke has a BSc in Food Science from the University of Leeds.

Mark Moss is the Head of Regulatory Europe, advising on UK, Irish and EU food legislation. He is an experienced food regulatory professional who has worked at some of the world's leading food and healthcare companies, including: Tesco, McCormick Foods, GlaxoSmithKline, Heinz, and Suntory. He has a Master's degree in Food Law and is an expert in novel food and novel health regulations.

Johanna Bolinder is a Regulatory and Scientific Affairs Consultant. She has driven critical product change projects at Mondelez International. At Spoon Guru, she spearheaded the Health and Sustainability team, collaborating with global retailers to integrate health and wellness into digital platforms. With a deep expertise in scientific and regulatory affairs, Johanna excels at futureproofing businesses by leveraging consumer and sustainability trends. Born in Sweden with an international background, Johanna is multilingual and passionate about promoting sustainable food choices for better health and a healthier planet.

Members' Regulatory Day

October 9, 2025

leatherhead
food research
part of SAGENTIA REGULATORY

Biographies

Jonathan Walsh is a Principal Regulatory Consultant and Team Leader providing expert regulatory support to Sagentia Regulatory's, formerly TSG Consulting's, antimicrobial and food contact clients. Jonathan combines his background in chemistry along with regulatory experience to review projects and develop successful registration strategies, submit federal registration packages, develop acceptable label claims, and coordinate product testing. Jonathan is an active member of key industry trade associations, and has a BSc in Chemistry from Florida State University.

Stephanie Bergin serves as the Director of Business Development at Sagentia Innovation, where she focuses on driving business growth in the Consumer and Food and Beverage sectors. With over 11 years at Sagentia and more than 15 years of consultancy experience, Stephanie has been instrumental in advising clients on R&D strategies, product development, and regulatory matters. She holds a deep passion for design and possesses an International Business Degree from Merrimack College in North Andover, MA.